

Information for participants attending events at the Abbotsford Convent

1. How to get to the Abbotsford Convent

Car: Melways reference 44 G5. Parking is available on the north side of St Heliers street at a cost of $4 in coins (gold coins preferred). There is absolutely no vehicular access in the Abbotsford Convent site.

Public Transport: Train: Victoria Park station on the Epping and Hurstbridge lines is the closest railway station. Please note that some services express past Victoria Park station. Once on Johnston St, walk east (away from the City) for around 12 minutes to Clarke St. Turn right into Clarke Street (the last right before the Yarra) and left into St Heliers St. Alternatively, buses travel regularly from Victoria Park Station down Johnston St.

Bus: From the City- the 200, 201 and 207 depart from Melbourne Central/ Lonsdale St in the city, run along Lygon St, Elgin St then Johnston St. Alight at Clarke Street bus stop. Turn right at Clarke St then turn left into St Heliers St. The 205 runs from Melbourne University via Elgin and Johnston St and past Clarke St.

For further information please call Metlink on 131 638 or see their journey planner here <http://jp.metlinkmelbourne.com.au>

2. The Abbotsford Convent is a public arts, education and cultural precinct which caters for multiple users everyday. Please respect other users whilst onsite, particularly in terms of noise levels.
3. See two maps below for parking, food and beverage outlets, toilets and room locations
4. Whilst on site you may be interested in the following attractions

c3 contemporary art gallery- with an annual program of curated exhibitions.
Opening hours 10am-6pm Wednesdays - Sundays. Convent basement 9416 4300

Phil Stokes Studio Glass- operational glass studio which also offers workshops
Opening hours 10am-4pm Thursdays - Sundays. Or times by appointment. 9419 7959

Convent Bakery- Fresh bread and breakfast, lunch and treats- also offers workshops
Opening hours 8am-5pm 7 days. 9419 9426

Lentil as Anything- Vegan restaurant with a pay-as-you-feel policy
Opening hours 9am-9:30pm 7 days. 9419 6444

House of Refreshment- bar / café on the first floor of the Convent building.
Opening hours 10am-evening.9419 5255

CONVENT BUILDING
GROUND FLOOR VENUES- ENTER VIA COURTYARD

